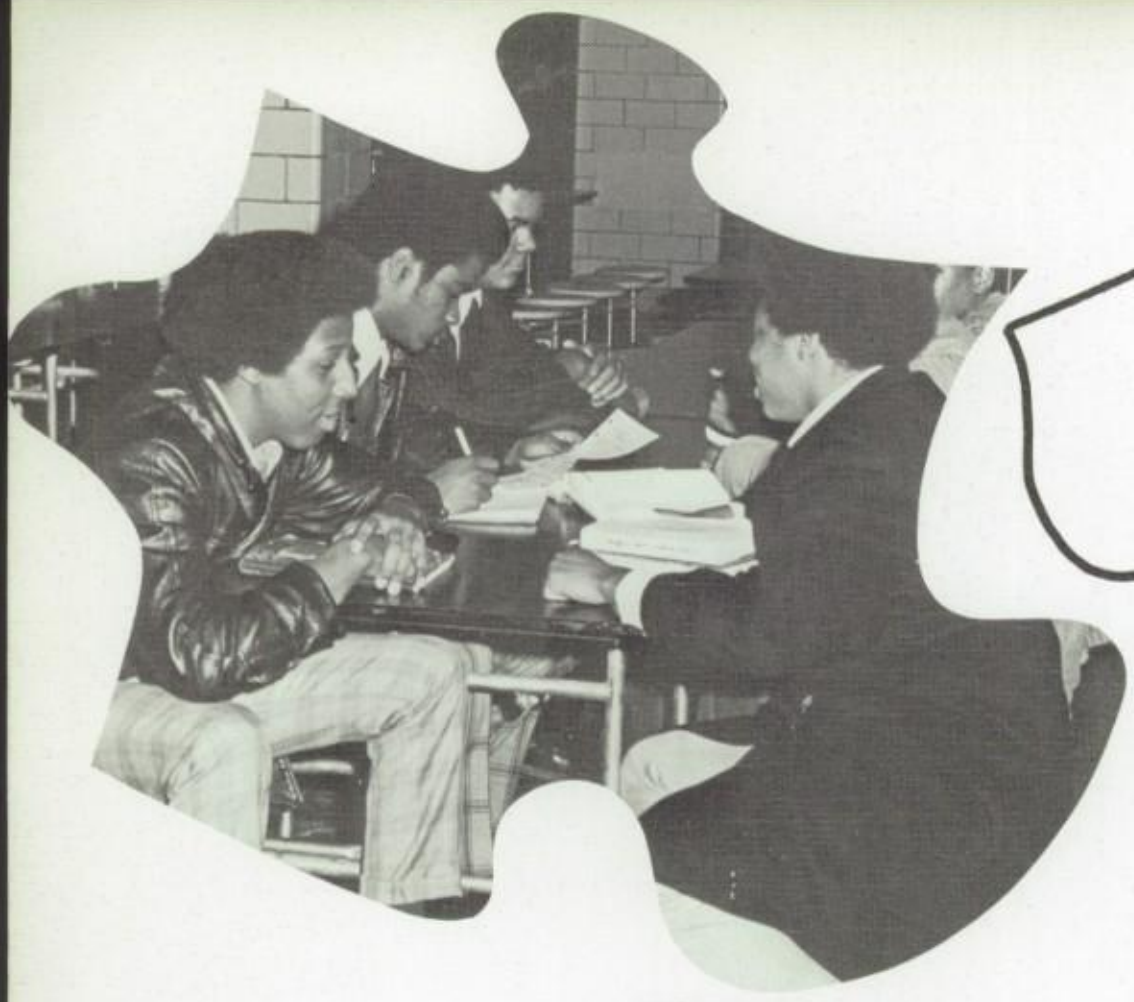
EMINENCE/1975

"I LIVE NOT IN MYSELF BUT I BECOME A PORTION OF THAT AROUND ME..."

Byron

CARDINAL DOUGHERTY HIGH SCHOOL
PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA 19120



Another year at Cardinal Dougherty has come to a close. A new puzzle has just been completed, a puzzle made up of bits and pieces of learning, sportsmanship, and memories. The picture is permanently fastened together in our minds by genuine and meaningful friendships.

We, the seniors of 1973, realize that these images will linger on, not only during the summer but throughout our entire lives. We must seek a new interest to fill the empty space which once housed a piece of our youth.

The EMINENCE is our tribute to all who have united with us in this puzzle of growth.

... STRIVING TO MAKE A NEW PIECE PART OF THE INCOMPLETE SELF THAT I AM.

ARNOLD PALMER
PRESIDENT

August 9, 1972

The Rev. Robert H. Breen
St. Anne's Rectory
2328 East Lehigh Avenue
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19125

Dear Father Breen:

Many thanks for your very nice letter. It was a very thoughtful gesture on your part to take the time to write to me and I really appreciate your kind words and complimentary remarks. I'm grateful that you've expressed your interest and support of me and my career in this way.

I've always loved the game of golf, not only because it is such terrific exercise, but also because it affords each and every participant the opportunity to be courteous, honest and to display self-control when under stress. I'm pleased that golf is being recognized for these fine qualities, and I'm very flattered that you feel I've been an inspiration to your boys. I commend you on your obvious dedication to the young men and I wish you continued success with them in the years to come.

Best regards to you and your golf team, and I'll look forward to meeting you sometime in the future.

Sincerely,

Arnold Palmer

GRADUA-TES

In the beginning when I first came, I was one. I had no goals, achievements were yet to come; I was small and alone, and a part of nothing. With you I grew. We merged, we became strong, we shared each other's dreams; you became part of me, I part of you. We became as one . . . forever.
